

TRAINING, LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT POLICY

Date of Approval: February 2nd 2023
Version: 2
Review Date: February 2nd 2024
Policy Type: Board Policy

Review History Table

A Liquid Future's Training, Learning and Development Policy will be reviewed annually. Some circumstances may trigger an early review, this includes but is not limited to legislative changes, organisational changes, incident outcomes and other matters deemed appropriate by the Board and/or Chief Executive Officer. A Liquid Future retains records to document each review undertaken. Records may include minutes of meetings and documentation of changes to policies and procedures that result from a review.

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure training, learning and development opportunities are provided in a fair and transparent manner, this policy provides some guidance in balancing organisation needs and available resources.

2. Scope

This policy applies to:

- All employees

3. Policy Statement

A Liquid Future recognises our success centres upon the success of our people. The capabilities of our workforce are critical in ensuring we continue to meet our vision and mission. Our aim is to ensure the personal / professional development of our people meet current and future organisation needs. As part of the Performance, Development and Review process, employees and managers will have the opportunity to identify capability development required for their roles and professional growth needs / interests on a continuous basis.

4. Principles

4.1 Eligibility

To be eligible to apply to a training course, all of the below criteria must have been satisfied. The employee must;

- Successfully completed probation
- Have at least 6 months of ongoing contract from the date of completing the course
- Training forms part of the employee's learning and development plan
- Be the employee's first attempt at completing the training in request
- Demonstrated satisfactory performance and behaviours in the workplace

5. Procedures

5.1 Study leave

For approved educational courses, employees may apply for study leave as outlined under A Liquid Future Staff Terms and Conditions. Employees and managers should discuss key dates each semester and plan in advance to avoid impact to an employee's work and study commitments. Discussions may include flexibility with working hours to attend lectures and tutorials with minimal impact to A Liquid Future operations.

5.2 Non-attendance / Cancellation

Where a participant has booked into a training course and then fails or can no longer attend without reasonable cause, they may be requested to reimburse any costs incurred. Early notification to managers or the CEO is encouraged.

5.3 Leaving A Liquid Future

If an employee leaves A Liquid Future whilst undertaking a course for which they have been approved for they will not be eligible to claim any expenses for that course. A Liquid Future may also seek reimbursement from employees that leave or is terminated by A Liquid Future for unsatisfactory performance or misconduct, within 12 months of completing a funded learning activity.

5.4 Professional Memberships

Membership and participation in Professional Bodies provides a range of networking and professional development opportunities to employees in the form of industry updates, newsletters and seminars. A Liquid Future may consider covering costs for professional memberships with the following criteria:

- Operational needs
- Costs of the membership
- Relevance to the industry specialisation
- Relevance to the role
- Plan for sharing the knowledge gained with other A Liquid Future employees

5.5 Determining learning and development needs

Training, Learning and Development opportunities are to be identified through the performance management process and/or through organisation training needs analysis. Learning and development needs may fall under the broad categories of:

- Organisational – relating to the sector and/or working effectively together
- Technical/professional – role and/or function specific
- Leadership – developing our managers and next leaders
- Health Safety Representatives - compulsory training eg. Apply First Aid, Fire Warden
- Compliance

5.6 Developing learning and development programs

A Liquid Future recognises learning can occur through informal and formal pathways. As such, employees and managers are encouraged to seek appropriate learning experiences. Research undertaken by Lombardo and Eichinger<sup>1</sup> (see Appendix 1) about the most effective development suggests that:

- 10% of learning is from formal training events alone
- 20% of learning is affected through working with a coach and/or mentor or more experienced colleagues
- 70% of learning happens informally through on-the-job and off-the-job interactions

5.7 Approval

All requests to participate in training must be approved in advance by an employee's manager, director and administration. Any direct costs of training will be reviewed and checked against the employee training budget.

Approval of courses will take into consideration:

- The employee's role and job requirements
- The alignment of the course to business objective
- The future role potential of the employee
- The employee is demonstrating satisfactory performance and behaviours in the workplace
- Cost of the training and financial position of the organisation

- That other options for training were considered

If the training request has not been approved, the employee will be notified and conversations may continue in determining the best pathway to meet the desired outcome. Employees may access the grievance process if they believe this policy has not been applied fairly.

5.8 Evaluation

As part of the continuous improvement process, employees will be requested to complete the Training Evaluation after the attendance of each training program.

5.9 Recording

Upon attendance to a training program, employees are required to forward their certificate of attendance or evidence of completion to administration.

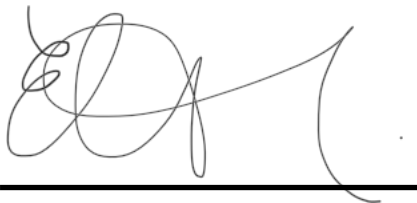

Administration will update staff training records.

6. Responsibilities & Reporting

6.1 Compliance, monitoring and review

The Board is responsible for ensuring the policy:

- Aligns with relevant legislation, government policy and/or A Liquid Futures' requirements/strategies/values,
- Is implemented and monitored, and
- Is reviewed to evaluate its continuing effectiveness
